Cases on one jury trial list shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding annual list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

Said lists shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk not later than the first day of the month preceding. Said lists need not be printed or prepared for distribution except to such extent as may be ordered by the justice having direction of the lists.

Cases may be added to the general list, at the end thereof, at any time by order of court or on the first Monday of any month by written agreement of all parties interested or seven days notice to all parties interested and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof.

Short lists shall be made by the clerk under the direction of the justice having direction of the lists, and shall be mailed to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

The lists, assignment of cases, and other administrative matters in civil jury cases in Suffolk shall be subject to the direction, as to the general list, of the justice presiding in the first jury session, and as to the special list, of the justice presiding in the sixth jury session, except as may be otherwise ordered by the chief justice.

Unless the court shall otherwise order, cases on one special list not reached for trial shall take precedence of cases on a subsequent list, but cases on one general list shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding general list.

RULE 64

(Applicable to civil cases without jury in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITHOUT JURY IN SUFFOLK

In Suffolk there shall be made for every Monday, except in August, a weekly list of cases for trial or hearing on the merits without jury.

Said list shall be composed of cases placed thereon (a) by order of the court, (b) by written agreement of all parties interested given to the clerk not later than four o'clock in the afternoon on the Tuesday preceding the Monday for which the list is made up, or (c) by written notice to all parties interested seven days at least before the Monday for which the list is made up and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof not later than four o'clock in the afternoon on the Tuesday preceding said Monday.

Cases for assessment of damage only shall be classified as such on the list and shall be heard at the opening of the court on each Monday, unless the court otherwise orders. Other cases shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be arranged on the list according to the time when placed thereon, precedence being given, however, on written request of any party, to cases within G. L. c. 212 § 16.

The weekly list shall be mailed to all counsel of record in the cases placed thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

Cases on one weekly list not reached for hearing shall take precedence of cases of the same class on a subsequent list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

The list, assignment of cases, and other administrative matters in civil cases without jury in Suffolk shall be subject to the direction of the justice presiding in the first session without jury, except so far as may be otherwise ordered by the chief justice.

Miss Louise Brin P. M. re case in which she was ruled. An Italian widower wished to send for his wife's cousin to become his wife. Wished laws and rulings changed so that fiancée could come non-quota.

Brought her in to Miss Barr,

A. M. went to Garland School with Mrs. Jerome Johnson Spoke for about $\frac{3}{4}$ hour on general topic? Immigration.

A by-product of the Social Security program became apparent when Daniel C. McCormick, Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, asked the committee to permit him to carry over $250,000 of unexpended appropriation from the current year to add to his projected allowance of $9,495,000 for the fiscal year 1936-37. He explained that passage of the Social Security Act "has served to start aliens all over the country to apply for naturalization."

"Instead of having the normal arrearage of 10,000 cases," he told the committee, "we have 132,000 cases in arrears. Our applications have increased by 27 per cent over the previous year, and 63 per cent over the year before.

"Our applications have jumped from 193,000 in 1933 to 247,000 in 1934 and 315,000 in 1935. In this last month, there has been an increase of arrearages in New York alone from 45,000 cases to 65,000 cases in one month."

He said that "this curve of work is sharply ascending and I cannot predict where it will end." He estimated that there are nearly 5,000,000 aliens in the country who are eligible for naturalization

a) How prevent exploitation of the foreigner.

2. How serious are the conflicts between first and second generation foreigners and what is the responsibility of the community toward them?

3. The problem of adjustment is double-edged; necessitating an appreciation, receptivity on the part of the American public to the cultural contributions of our foreign residents, as well as the foreigner's obligation to conform to our social standards.

a) is there any organized program which undertakes to meet and solve these problems?

b) could additional support be given this program?

"The classification which is printed on the back of form 2400 is of course an entirely formal one unique to the Department of Labor as in ordinary circumstances North Italian would include a native of Florence, Genoa, and the countries as limited in the instruction which limit North Italian to those persons who are native to the basin of the River Po.

There have been, as you know, several recommendations made to the Department of Labor and I believe Congress has been memorialized to omit these classifications North and South Italian in reference to Italian persons seeking citizenship. The Italians themselves feel that Italy is now a United country and the dissemination of the parts of the country within their geographical boundaries as North Italian and residents of other parts as South Italian are not in accordance with their national feelings.

A recommendation is to be made of this

PLEAS SECONDED

Their pleas were seconded in the remarks of Mrs. Mary E. Knight of the Literary Club of Milton; Mrs. Ida S. Cohen of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; Leo M. Harlow, former state commander of the legion, who said that the leader of the repeal forces (Prof. James Sheldon of Boston University) spoke on the issue the night before at the Boston Y. M. C. A. in defiance of WPA officials in charge of that forum; and John Sanjean, appearing for the Armenian Democratic Club of Massachusetts.

"Our learned educators are not capable of telling the truth," said Sanjean. "They don't dare to tell the truth. The truth is, gentlemen, that they have been suffering from a superiority complex for years. Why, they create society. Society must obey their commands. They will do as they please. They will teach our youth communism or any other doctrine which may undermine our institutions. You have no right to interfere, gentlemen. Pity these poor educators. They are the victims of perverted minds."

One of the last proponents of the oath was Prof. Hiram Archer of the Suffolk law school. He said:

"We are simple-minded folk over at Suffolk. We took the oath as an honor and a privilege."

The arguments of those opposed to the law were based on a misconception, he continued. The academic freedom they sought was guaranteed by the Constitution which the oath sought to preserve. Dr. Conant's argument that the Massachusetts oath was akin to the Hitler oath, he dismissed by declaring, "The German oath is an oath to uphold tyranny, while ours is an oath to resist tyranny."

Dear Miss Barr: "I have your letter of March 16, 1936, concerning the application for derivative citizenship of Renato Camello of 7 South Street, Somerville, Mass. which was returned to him in order that he might state whether his race was North Italian or South Italian.

I am sorry that it appears to you that applications are being sent back for what seems to be trivial reasons. However our Central Office is insisting that this information be furnished and until we receive instructions to the effect that it is not necessary to show whether persons of the Italian race are North Italian or South Italian it will be necessary for us to require applicants to show this on applications submitted by them. I note that you have issued instructions to your workers to have the complete description shown on each application, for which I am appreciative.

If and when we do receive word from the Central Office that it will not be necessary to show this classification in regard to Italians, I will immediately get in touch with you.

Men and women who come to the Family Welfare Society know tragedy more often than happiness. They know the bitter taste of bread bought by relief. They know what it means to break under strain, and to see homes created in high hope crumble to sordidness. They know the heart break of failure with their children as well as with themselves. When they talk, they tell all this, in words that, for one's peace of mind, one could wish to forget; but when they write, they write of a movie-made world of ease and comfort, of cleverness that overreaches circumstance, of men that are handsome and women that are fair.

No Americanization Increase

Representative Brady of Somerville moved to increase the item for personal services in the division of immigration and Americanization from $41,340 to $43,140. This amendment was opposed by Representative Herter, who quoted Richard D. Grant, when secretary to Governor Curley, as saying that every person who came in contact with the division of immigration and Americanization became "a Curley Democrat."

Representative Philip Sherman of Somerville held up to view a pamphlet from the division, containing the Constitution of the United States and bearing a picture of Governor Curley. He opposed the increase for the immigration and Americanization division and it was refused, 119 to 98.

A proposed increase from $6000 to $7000 in the item for publishing the State and federal constitutions was beaten, 97 to 50.

Things got worse for the Democrats on the next rollcall as a proposal to increase a personal services item for the Division of Immigration and Americanization from $41,340 to $43,140 was voted down by rollcall, 119 to 98. This motion was made by Representative Brady of Somerville.

Webster tells us that supervision is the act of inspecting with authority.

Dissected the two words appear somewhat differently. Super means, over, beyond, above. Vision means the act of or faculty of seeing, perception of mental images; or something seen in a dream or trance. The legal set up of the school organization gives the supervisor certain authority. Shall we conclude that this combined with the ability to dream, or see image, presents a word picture of the supervisor?

Entered Country in 1923

Bartolini's background, as released by the police, is as follows:

He is 46 years old. He was born near Genoa, Italy, on April 28, 1890. In 1914, he married Nataline Landi at Genoa. They have three children, Parmara, 20; Stefani, 18, and Ettore, 14.

Bartolini left his family in 1923 and came to the United States. The police say he entered the country illegally. But he arrived prior to July 1, 1924, and was not subject to the stringent immigration laws, calling for deportation, passed at that time. He settled soon after his arrival in Quincy and has lived there since, at various addresses. For about 10 years he has lived at 240 Washington st, that city.

Soon after coming to Quincy, Bartolini found employment as a painter and coal passer at the Fore River plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation. He worked there about a year and then obtained a job at a Braintree oil refinery, where he remained for 10 years. He lost this in 1934. Since then he has been employed at odd jobs. He worked for a time as a chef in a Quincy restaurant.

For the past three years he had found employment as a handyman for Mrs Asquith at her Whitman's Pond bungalow. He did errands in his automobile for her, occasionally brought her friends to the house, and did repair jobs for her from time to time. Once he painted the house.

One way of dealing with difficulties is to wade them. One may wade by day dreaming, by telling one's self it is someone else's fault, by bolstering one's self-esteem by creating imaginary successes, or by living in the past.

Compensation is a means of wading by "making up for"
some weakness.

As presented by the town of Falmouth,
the educational opportunities for aliens and their children can be successfully attacked only by the Commonwealth. The Dept. of Ed.
thru its Division of Immig. & Am.
should have a perm. field agent
whose duties should be to visit the different towns of the Commonwealth and give active encouragement and arouse the desires of the aliens to become citizens. If a town, where there are a number of aliens,
is willing to establish classes, if enough desire and support is shown, the problem is greatly simplified, and it is the responsibility of the Commonwealth to see to it that these aliens are prepared to manifest such desires.

in P. M. for the purpose of voting.

Went in P. M. at 3.15 to Nazareth Convent, Broadway South Boston. Interviewed 2 nuns. Returned to State House. Worked until 5.30. dictating into dictaphone etc.

In A. M. had dictated 4 rolls in preparation

Basic Principles of the Constitution

for Revere Women's Club at the request of Mrs. Mac Sulay.

Mrs. Mac Sulay's daughter came & collected me at State House at 2.
I had returned to dictate. They returned me to State House at 4.30. I dictated until 5.30 clearing up day's work.

The audience at Revere were old and seemed ~~to me~~ to have only a remote interest in subject. I think Mrs. Mac Sulay was asked to furnish a speaker and I was the victim.

I think it was wasted time and energy.

Telling Our Story.

Helen Cody Baker, Publicity Secretary, Council of Social Agencies, Chicago.
Social work and its audiences. Telling our story to these audiences by spoken words, written words, pictures. Shared responsibility for interpretation. To whom do we look for help in telling our story? How can agencies in one field join to interpret their work? What responsibility have different fields of social work to each other? Publicity will not give you a program--- a devoted staff--- board members.

"why does a board exist?
joint thinking far enough ahead to be progressive - far enough behind to be practical.

But when I came to consider local government, I began to see how it was in essence the first-line defence thrown up by the community against our common enemies—poverty, sickness, ignorance, isolation, mental derangement and social maladjustment. The battle is not faultlessly conducted, nor are the motives of those who take part in it all righteous or disinterested. But the war is, I believe, worth fighting, and this corporate action is at least based upon recognition of one fundamental truth about human nature—we are not only single individuals, each face to face with eternity and our separate spirits; we are members one of another.
